Types of Donations

One-Time Donation

If you're considering making a one-time donation, we accept amounts of any size. We really appreciate donations of any amount since it assists us to continue providing quality care to our seniors.

Monthly Donations

Setting up monthly donations is also a way you can help support seniors in your local community. Just schedule a call and tell us how much you wish to donate each month, the time period you would like to donate and we will make it happen

In Memory/Tribute

A donation in memory of someone is a special way you can show your sympathy for the loss of a loved one, while giving back. It is also an amazing way to show appreciation to someone special or acknowledge a occasions such as a milestone birthday or an anniversary.

Corporate Donations or Sponsorships

Donations and sponsorships from local businesses and corporations provide an opportunity for support of our services, special events and other initiatives. Sponsorships provide increased public visibility and a feature on our website and social media

Special request

We're also currently looking for a donation of a Transfer Chair; new or gently used.

For any assistance, please contact Cerita Miller at (905) 426- 3300.
